SEED CORN

CONTRACT QUOTATIONS—CROP 1907.

To W. H. H. Agnew Washington DC

CONDITIONS.

The prices herein quoted are for early orders, and subject to change without notice after ten days from date. Will plant other standard varieties not herein listed, if planting stock is furnished by customer, at contract price, and ordered in sufficient quantity.

Goods delivered as early after harvest as they can be properly cured and fitted for the market. In event of short or unmarketable crops, or failure upon the part of our growers to deliver us contracted crops, deliveries will be made pro rata, and without responsibility on our part for such shortages and failures. We also disclaim responsibility for loss or damage by fire or other unavoidable accident to stock while in our possession or in the hands of our growers.

We exercise care to have all seeds true to name and of such quality as will be satisfactory to our customers, but we give no warranty, express or implied, as to variety, description, purity, productiveness, or any other matter connected with any seeds we send out, and will not be in any way responsible for the crop.

Quotations are made for wholesale quantities only, and do not apply on small amounts of standard varieties.

Deliveries are made f. o. b. cars at Waterloo (or Valley, Nebraska, at Waterloo rate), and our responsibility ceases on delivery to carrier in good order, properly consigned and receipted for.

Bags charged extra, at wholesale cost to us.

Claims for overcharge or shortage in weight must be made within ten days after receipt of goods.

All bills and accounts are payable in funds at par Omaha.

TERMS OF PAYMENT.

N. B.—Varieties of WHITE FIELD CORN grown in this locality are apt to contain occasional grains tinted with yellow. We are prepared to quote handpicked stock when desired, but when "handpicked" is not specified, it is understood that we offer the usual quality from which the bulk of our sales are made.

Corn is packed in bags of two bushels each, with tag and label denoting variety only.
